- Senate Aging Ranking Member Scott Encourages CMS to Improve HCBS. Today, Ranking Senate Aging Committee Member Tim Scott (R-SC) sent a letter to Centers for Medicare and Medicaid

Services (CMS) Administrator Chiquita Brooks-LaSure, calling for improving quality and combating fraud in Medicaid’s Home & Community Based Services (HCBS). In the letter, Ranking Member Scott notes, “Effective solutions to improve quality of care and prevent fraud in Medicaid HCBS are imperative to ensure that older Americans can age at home. This remains a priority for the Aging Committee.” The letter is a result of a report that Ranking Member Scott released last month titled, “Expanding Opportunities for Older Americans: Self-Directed Home & Community Based Services,” which highlighted deepening concern around the administration of HCBS, and the need nationwide to better support seniors to age at home. The letter asks CMS to describe its efforts to establish quality measures for Medicaid HCBS and mitigate fraud to ensure all Americans are afforded the right to age where they prefer with dignity, respect, and quality care. The full letter can be found here.

- LeadingAge Letter to HHS Life Safety Engineer. Today, LeadingAge sent a letter to James Merrill, Life Safety Engineer at Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS), to request movement on the FSES and Life Safety Codes. Because we know there are many members that are going to run out of the time limited waiver this Fall, the letter asks CMS for immediate action. Please stay tuned for next steps and a response from CMS. Read the letter here.
- OSHA Emergency Temporary Standard and LeadingAge virtual update posted. LeadingAge has posted a virtual update on the OSHA Emergency Temporary Standard for healthcare settings live on its Learning Hub. The virtual update is free for LeadingAge members. The U.S. Department of Labor’s Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) emergency temporary standard (ETS) for healthcare settings was published in the federal register last week– triggering the compliance dates for the provisions of the standard. Employers must comply with most provisions by July 6th, and with provisions involving physical barriers, ventilation, and training by July 21st. OSHA pledged to use its enforcement discretion to avoid citing employers who are making a good faith effort to comply with the ETS. A summary of the ETS outlines its requirements, most of which providers are already doing in addressing the COVID-19 pandemic. OSHA has created many tools on its resources page to assist employers in compliance.
- FDA revokes certain respirator-related EUAs: FDA issued an update on June 30 to announce revocation of certain emergency use authorizations (EUAs) related to the use of respirators in healthcare settings. These revocations mean that healthcare settings should be operating at conventional capacity strategies for respirator use. As of June 30, reprocessing/reuse or extended use of single-use respirators is no longer authorized. As of July 6, non-NIOSH approved respirators are no longer authorized. More information on these updates can be found here.
- Dr. Meena Seshamani to lead CMS Medicare Office. Today, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services announced Dr. Meena Seshamani, M.D., Ph.D., as Deputy Administrator and Director of the Center for Medicare. Dr. Seshamani will oversee policymaking aimed at the more than 61 million seniors and people with disabilities covered by the Medicare program, effective today. Dr. Seshamani most recently served as Vice President of Clinical Care Transformation at MedStar Health, where she designed and implemented population health and value-based care initiatives. She served on the senior leadership of the hospital and had responsibility for overseeing the outpatient care site health system, which included geriatrics, palliative care, and community health. She also served on the leadership of the Biden-Harris Transition HHS Agency Review Team. Prior to MedStar Health, she was Director of the Office of Health Reform at HHS, during the Obama administration, and led implementation of the Affordable Care Act across the Department, including coverage policy, delivery system reform, and public health. She was also until recently on the board of the Coalition to Transform Advanced Care and an advocate for serious illness care initiatives.

- LeadingAge Letter to OSHA Requesting Delay on ETS Compliance. On July 2, LeadingAge sent a letter to OSHA requesting a six-month delay on the compliance dates of the Emergency Temporary Standards (ETS) for healthcare settings. The letter also requests an additional 30 days in which to file comments on the ETS. Employers must comply with most provisions by July 6th, and with provisions involving physical barriers, ventilation, and training by July 21st. LeadingAge has a virtual update on the OSHA Emergency Temporary Standard for healthcare settings live on its Learning Hub. The virtual update is free for LeadingAge members. OSHA has created many tools on its resources page to assist employers in compliance. Read the letter here.

- State by State Face Mask Mandates – 9 states still have them in place. The latest guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) allows people who are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 to forgo masks in most public settings, indoors and out. Several States have modified their mask mandates to align with the federal guidelines while others have relaxed rules in most settings. Nine state governments require people to wear face coverings in most indoor public settings to curb the spread of COVID-19. The District of Columbia and Puerto Rico also have mask orders in place. To date, 30 states that had mask orders covering the general public have mostly lifted them. Eleven states did not impose mask mandates at any point during the pandemic. Here’s where each state stands on the use of face masks, as of July 8, 2021.
- NEW: Member Tools and Public Opinion Poll on U.S. Attitudes About Investing in Aging Services for Older Adults

As Congress considers bigger investments in affordable housing, broadband internet, and home care for older adults, LeadingAge commissioned a national survey to help ensure these provisions advance during the legislative process. The survey finds overwhelming backing for government investments to support older adults, across political party affiliations and geographic areas.

Now is the time to raise our voices to ensure that these aging services receive much-needed increased investment. LeadingAge has prepared a suite of tools—including media outreach templates and social graphics—for your use in informing local media, elected officials, coalition partners, and community members about this timely opportunity to expand support for older adults.
