

SPEAKER BIOS

Challenges for America's Older Adults to "Age My Way": Breaking the Barriers to Awareness of & Access to Aging Services

Thursday, May 26, 2022 at 12:00 p.m. ET

Katie Smith Sloan

President & CEO

LeadingAge

Guided by the mission to be the trusted voice for aging, Katie Smith Sloan advances the organization's strategic priorities to increase impact through advocacy, enhance member value and generate ideas to improve our current system of services and supports. She seeks common ground with other stakeholders to address ageism and to promote innovation.

Roberto Muñiz

LeadingAge Board Member

President & CEO

Parker

Roberto Muñiz has served for over 20 years as the President and CEO for Parker Health Group. Roberto has grown the organization from two small nursing homes to a full continuum of care in several locations throughout central New Jersey, providing best in class health care and aging services.

Linda Couch

Vice President of Housing Policy

LeadingAge

Linda Couch provides strategic leadership for LeadingAge's development of housing policy and priorities, including identifying and analyzing various policy proposals. She works closely with top leadership in the Department of Housing and Urban Development and other key federal agencies and advocates on members' behalf regarding federally assisted elderly housing policies.

Mollie Gurian

Vice President of Home Based & HCBS Policy
LeadingAge

Mollie Gurian is responsible for the analysis of health policy and regulatory changes related to hospice, end of life, palliative care, and home health services. She develops and advocates LeadingAge's position on those issues and writes regular analyses and newsletter articles on these topics.

Jenna Kellerman

Director of Workforce Strategy & Development
LeadingAge LTSS Center @UMass Boston

Jenna Kellerman works to guide LeadingAge's efforts to improve the recruitment, retention, and sustainability of a diverse, quality aging services caregiving workforce.