

LeadingAge in 2023

There's never been a more important time to be a part of LeadingAge. In 2023 we continued to lead members and our sector into the future. Check out just a few of our national accomplishments from this year.

National advocacy to serve your interests.

LeadingAge policy and PR experts work to remove barriers and improve funding for providers from all parts of the field.

CMS ADOPTED 17

of our hospice integrity asks.

$160 MILLION

secured for Section 202 housing.

SUPPORTED LEGISLATION

to stop home health funding cuts.

$285 MILLION

in federal funding secured for apprenticeships.

Solutions to help your organization stay strong.

In addition to dozens of new workforce resources on ten critical topics, members received tools on infection control technology, CMMI's GUIDE model, the Employee Retention Credit, and more.

250+ PEOPLE

completed our risk assessments and benchmarking program.

25+ WORKFORCE PRESENTATIONS

at member organizations, state partner events and other provider gatherings.

LAUNCHED ONLINE GOVERNANCE

tools and videos, along with offering access to specialized consultants.

Networking opportunities like no other.

LeadingAge members rely on one another to exchange knowledge, solve problems, and share resources.

MEMBERS FROM ACROSS THE COUNTRY

connect at events, on virtual member gatherings, through network groups, and one-on-one.

OVER 2,000 PEOPLE

participated in networking opportunities.

13 MEMBERS-ONLY NETWORKS

including recently launched groups for PACE, continuing care at home, and leaders of color.

Career-advancing education and leadership development.

Thousands of people gathered for our Annual Meeting and Leadership Summit. We also launched powerful new additions to our signature leadership programs.

OVER 10,000

new virtual learners accessed education on our Learning Hub in the past few years.

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

launched for new CEOs.

NEXT LEVEL PROGRAM

launched for emerging leaders.

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

cohort was expanded to be even larger.

Your needs continue to be our top priority as we look forward. We're in the thick of several public advocacy efforts, even more virtual members-only groups are in the works, and you'll continue to get free, exclusive, or discounted access to even more professional development that deepens your organization's impact. Thank you for being a part of the LeadingAge community!
